PLANS OF THE REBELS IN MARYLAND AND VIRGINIA.—All the [illegible] facts have transpired showing that the arrest of Howard was an important one, inasmuch as he has been engaged in perfecting organizations both in Maryland and Virginia to strike whenever the enemy should attack Washington. There is no doubt of this fact.

A regiment of Choctaws, one regiment of Chickasaws, a battalion of Seminoles and a company of Creeks, all under the command of General D. H. Cooper and Captain Albert Pike, the Southern papers say, are about to enter Kansas to fight for the rebel cause. They are armed with rifle, butcher knife and tomahawk, and have their faces painted one half red and the other black.

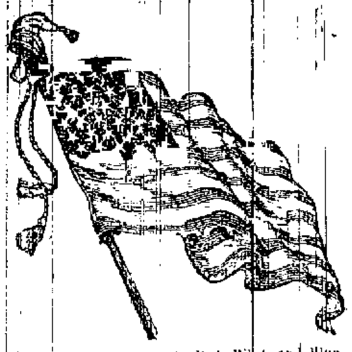
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true;
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save!

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 28, 1861.

Excluding Treasonable Mail Matter from the Mails.

The Advertiser seems to be alarmed lest his treasonable sheet should be excluded from the mails. He is quite aware that the practice of excluding from the mails newspapers and documents of an incendiary and insurrectionary character, is an established one of Government. It was established in time of peace, and by his political friends. If admitted to be necessary and proper in time of peace, how much more is it when an insurrection has spread over half the Nation, and threatens the very existence of Government and the devastation of our property, and when public journals are found criminal enough to instigate and aid the insurrection, and to attempt to excite popular prejudice against the Government, to prevent the volunteering of soldiers, and to weaken the Government and the people of the North in their effort to suppress the insurrection?

The Government has only to apply an established practice to a greater insurrection and a greater public danger than was ever contemplated by it, to exclude all treasonable journals and documents from the mails, and stop in a great measure, the aid which they are furnishing to the enemy and the damage which they are doing to the people. It will not be pretended by any one, that the liberty of the press requires the Government to carry matter which designs its destruction; certainly not in a time of a great insurrection and civil war, when the rule was established in a time of peace. The Government has in its own hands the means of stopping, to a great extent, the circulation of treasonable publications, without exceeding the established practice.

Postmasters in the South have been justified and sustained in this when it was believed by them that documents and papers sent through their offices were likely to lead to insurrection and revolution. Our Government would be likely to follow a precedent, the propriety of which was never seriously questioned.

Our neighbor thinks he is persecuted for opinion's sake. Some few months ago, he had no opinions. An opinion upon the great questions of the day could not be got out of him. But his friends took charge of him, and—at length—he did venture to express some opinions. These proved to be against our Government and in behalf of the rebels who had stolen our forts, our mints, our arsenals, and who were raising armies to break up the Government. He boldly avowed that he sympathized with the rebels; and now he recommends public prayer in their behalf, that our Government may be paralyzed in endeavoring to save the Constitution and the Union. If he is denounced by honest citizens for this course, he makes up a pitiful face, and whines out that he is not permitted to enjoy his free thoughts, and is persecuted for opinion's sake. If he was in the land for which he declares his sympathies, and denounced Jeff. Davis' Government, as he does that of our fathers, he would ornament some of the structures which are the insignia of Southern humanity, chivalry, and glory.

The Advertiser has a remarkable fine taste for Abolition poetry. Gov. Curry quotes from a poem by "James Russell Lowell, one of the Boston literati," which he thinks is very appropriate "now when brother is waging war against brother." We copy from the Advertiser two stanzas:

"As for war I call it murder,
I'll show you my testament for that;
I don't want to go no further,
There you have it plain and flat."

"I dunno but what it's pretty,
Training round in bobtail coats,
But it's curious Christian duty,
This 'ere cuttin' folkses throats."

Gov. Curry is very anxious that Capt. Dennison should raise a company of cavalry to "train round with bobtailed coats."

Threatened Hostilities of the Snake Indians.

The public are aware that miners and others have been stopped by the Indians, on their way to the Snake River Gold Diggings, and forbidden to travel into that country.—We have been furnished with the following reliable information on the subject:

"On the 12th inst., as Crayton, Bledsoe, D. C. [illegible] and others, seven in all, had reached about eight miles on the Salmon river trail, beyond the "Cold Springs," they were stopped by "Eagle of the Light," with a party of about sixty men; forty of whom were Snake Indians, and the balance Nez Perces. "Eagle of the Light" positively forbid them to cross his country, and threatened death if he persisted; and declared that he was going to drive all of the whites out of his country. Crayton, who speaks Nez Perces somewhat, argued with him for an hour, but to no purpose. The Indians' determination was fixed. Whereupon the party retired a short distance and concluded to wait for the miners to come up, so that their force would be strong enough to push their way through. Since that time I have not heard that the party has moved.

This "Eagle of the Light" is a bad Indian, and a determined fellow; he has always been unfriendly to the whites; and during the past summer, has used every exertion to instigate a war against the whites, and even during the last month has traveled into "Kamiakan's" country—had an interview with him, and from there he went to the Umatilla Reservation, for war purposes. But his great success thus far appears, is to obtain but about twenty Nez Perces, and his alliance with the Snakes.

The Indians about the Nez Perces Agency, of the Sawyer party, repudiate his doings, and already look upon him as an enemy of their people. And it is my opinion he has got all the strength he can get for this purpose. He may cut off some parties working on Salmon river, which I think more than likely; but his actions will not lead this people to war. Both the whites and the Nez Perces understand him and the case well."

We have later information to the effect that Crayton's party had advanced twenty-five miles on their journey without molestation.

News of Importance from Washington.

The following is an extract from a letter received by a well known firm in this city from Washington. The letter was sent by "Pony Express," but has been a long while coming; nevertheless, it contains many interesting items of news, which have never been made public before, and therefore, we give them to our readers:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23, 1861.

"The bonds are finally engraved and officers are at work upon them. They are in three denominations of $50, $100 and $500, the first having nineteen coupons attached for annual interest, and the second and third have thirty-nine coupons attached for semi-annual interest—interest being allowed only from July 1st, 1861.

The coupons, you will perceive, being annual on the $50 bonds, and semi-annual on the $100 and $500, are of the nature of shinplasters on the government, of $3 and 15, to be detached from time to time, as the interest falls due, viz:—1st. of January and 1st. of July, of each year, from 1862 to 1881. These coupons are each about 1½ or 2 inches wide, by 3 or 3½ long, and call for $3 or $15, as the case may be, at any Treasury office of the United States, and will pass as Bank Bills of those denominations. The body of the bond is engraved and printed in blue ink, like a Land Warrant; and is about 20 by 12 inches in size. The bonds will not issue in the name of the assignee unless properly transferred.

To-day, an order goes out to Oregon from the War Department to raise one regiment of 10 companies mounted volunteers for service on the frontier of Oregon and Washington. Thos. Cornelius, Col., R. F. Maury, Lieut. Col., B. T. Harding, Quartermaster and Mustering officer."

* * * *

Col. Baker writes to W. C. Johnson, Esq. of Oregon City, that he "values the station conferred on him by the people of Oregon, more highly than any other in the world, and does not intend to vacate or resign it."—Our "straight-out republican Governor," can file all his applications for the Senatorship for the benefit of posterity.

GEORGIA.—Brown, the Governor, does not harmonize with Jeff. Davis. At the late election, the Davis party put up Nesbitt to run against him. Brown appealed to the people and was re-elected. He has ordered five regiments of troops from Virginia home, to defend Georgia.

HEALTH OF GEN. SCOTT.—General Scott can never more take the field. He cannot mount a horse; he can scarcely ride in a carriage; but his mind is clear and vigorous, and his opinions are eagerly sought for. Still in his ashes glow his wonted fires.

[Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.]

LATER FROM THE EAST.

WASHINGTON DATES TO OCTOBER 17.

Progress of the Great Rebellion.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 23d.

By Overland Mail, which arrived at Outer Station yesterday morning, we have the following later news from the East.

The New Hampshire quota of troops is now full. That State is the first which has completed her levy of troops under the President's proclamation.

The Indian Agent in New Mexico has just arrived at Washington from the Territory. All the principal men of the Navajo Indians came in and made a treaty of peace with our government, with the exception of those of Arizona, of which a small force of Texans have possession, through the treachery of Col. Lowry. The Federal force there under Col. Cauley, who commands that military department, is from 1200 to 1500. The citizens have raised three full regiments. The people are loyal to a man. There were no disturbances on the plains, and where stock was passing over the Indians were in the best possible humor, from the fact of their receiving presents.

A gunboat is in pursuit of the Nashville, which is reported to have run the blockade at Charleston on the 12th.

The Savannah has seized the ship Maid of New Orleans, just arrived from Liverpool. The vessel is partly owned in New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6th.—This afternoon a detachment of 1,000 men from the Mass. 13th, and Col. Geary's Penn. regiments crossed the river at Bolivar, attacked the rebels 1600 strong. After a sharp skirmish the Federal troops drove the enemy back from the river capturing a 13 pounder. Our loss 6 killed.

The U. S. steamer Townsend which has been off Chincoteague Islands has captured a dozen schooners which had not clearance.

POTOSI, Oct. 13th.—The enemy was discovered approaching the bridge about 7 o'clock by a German; he gave the alarm, and our men numbering 400 or 500, prepared for action, although the force against us numbering 600, under lead of Jeff. Thompson. Our troops stood their ground and from a stone pile and other places of shelter did good execution. They were finally surrounded, however, and were obliged to surrender. Our loss, one killed and two wounded. Rebel loss five killed and four wounded badly. Federal prisoners, sworn not to bear arms against the South, and released. The Rebels then burnt the bridge and speedily retired.

The Times dispatch says "I think the rebel army has fallen back entirely from the lines of Manassas and established a new line on the west side of the Rappahanock, their right-wing resting on Aquia creek and their left on the foot hills of Blue Mountain."

It is stated that the rebels have intercepted our preparations for a naval expedition really covering a contemplated attack on them.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 17.—Yesterday morning the rebels showed themselves on Bolivar Heights, at Harper's Ferry, and commenced an attack from artillery, with three companies under Maj. J. P. Gould, stationed on the north side of the Potomac. A constant firing was kept up for some hours, when three companies of the 3d Wisconsin Regiment crossed the river, and forming into line drove the enemy back and succeeded in capturing one of their heavy guns. They were compelled, however, to retreat, which they did in good order, as usual. They were re-inforced by other companies, and then with Col. John Geary at their head, marched upon the enemy, and after hard fighting drove them from their position and captured their 32-pounder, a Columbiad. Our forces had three pieces of artillery, and these were fired from this side of the river until the enemy retreated. The enemy had seven pieces of artillery and 500 cavalry, together with this infantry, and were completely routed and driven back some three miles. Our loss, killed and wounded, 7—enemies loss, 15. Col. Ashly, who was at the head of the enemy was among the slain.

ROLLA, Mo., Oct. 16th.—A sharp skirmish took place on Monday morning 20 miles this side of Lebanon. The companies belonging to Maj. Knight's battalion attached to Gen. Wyman's command found 150 rebel cavalry. Knight surprised them by an attack in their rear and completely routed them killing 38 and taking 30 prisoners. Maj. K's lost 1 killed and 1 wounded.

JEFF. CITY, Mo., Oct. 16th.—A scout who arrived here to-night reported Price's army on Sunday at Clintonville, Cedar Co., 25 miles south of Papinsville on the Carthage road. The whole army has effected the passage of the Osage and is still in full retreat.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17th.—A fleet which sailed from this port on Sunday arrived at Old Point Monday, causing great excitement by its extensive character.

A flag of truce came down from Norfolk same day but Gen. Wool refused to receive it.

Letters received here from Syracuse, Mo., Oct. 17th, from Price's army state that Claib Jackson is at present very dissipated and bordering on delirium tremens. He often raves about camp like a maniac.

FOR COUGHS.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The following is the verdict of the coroner's jury after hearing the testimony of the physicians, who held a post mortem examination over the body of Lewis Byrnes.

An inquisition taken at the Cemetery, one and a half miles east of the city of Portland, in the county of Multnomah, on the 24th day of October, A. D. 1861, before me, J. F. McCoy, Coroner of said County, upon the view of the body of Lewis Byrne, lying there dead, by the oaths of the Jurors, whose names are hereunto subscribed, who being sworn on behalf of the State of Oregon, when, how, and by what means the said Byrnes came to his death, upon their oaths, say deceased Lewis Byrnes came to his death by the effect of a rupture of the small intestine called the [illegible], occasioned by a blow or kick by one Simmons, on the deceased, on the 21st October, 1861.

In testimony whereof the said Coroner and Jurors of this inquest, have hereunto set their hands, the day and year aforesaid.

J. F. McCoy, Coroner.

Thos. Pritchard, Wm. Baker,
W. L. Caldwell, I. C. Taylor,
Edward Dyer, J. W. Collins,
Jurors.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Thos. O'Melia made his appearance before the Recorder on Saturday charged with being drunk and assaulting an Indian, for which his honor sentenced him to pay a fine of ten dollars and cost; in default of which he was ordered to repeat for the the term of four days in the marshal's boarding house.

SAILS.—The bark Industry, Corno, Master, sails this morning for St. Helens to receive a cargo of staves for San Francisco.

MONTEZUMA.—This eating house opened on Saturday night with a free supper. The house was thronged. Billy Merker and Hendray know how to treat customers. It is the best restaurant in town. Good order and plenty of "grub" is the order of the day.

J. C. Breckenridge complained as much as did the Advertiser of the violations of the Constitution by the Constitution. His agonies on this subject were painful to behold. They equalled those of the Advertiser. Breckenridge deserted to the enemy between two days. The Advertiser remains among us to "aid and comfort the enemy." When will it follow its file leader?

The Advertiser has not informed its readers that J. C. Breckenridge has deserted to the enemy. Tell them the truth, neighbor. Don't be too modest.

Official vote in California for Governor:—Stanford, 56,036; Conness, 30,944; McConnell, 32,751.

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, [illegible] Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape, a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases arising from a torpid liver. [illegible] Warranted the best remedy ever invented for Female complaints, such as [illegible], Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists, and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, [illegible] street, San Francisco. [illegible]

The Medical and Surgical Institute of Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it as well as its popularity far above the [illegible] and professional offices. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners [illegible] and they occupy with [illegible] position in the profession. [illegible] a strong light among the [illegible] and Dr. Czapkay has fully [illegible], as a proof of which, the [illegible] of Mexico complimented him with a [illegible] Selecting this [illegible] position although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary Army for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his utmost attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great [illegible] that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers by the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the [illegible] in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding [illegible] in their letters and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal.

NewspaperARCHIVE®

The Advertiser, which says that the Sacramento Union is in favor of the removal of Gen Fremont for his arbitrary acts, passes that paper [illegible] to the tender mercies of the Oregonian. The Sacramento Union is a loyal paper—entirely in favor of crushing this rebellion so that it will stay crushed, and such a paper has a perfect right to criticise the conduct of public officers. Our own opinion is, that Gen Fremont committed a great mistake in arresting the editor of the St Louis News. Great men often make mistakes. Gov Curry has done this thing in arraying himself on the side of treason and rebellion.

THE NEW EL DORADO.—A correspondent of the Mountaineer writes from Pierce City under date of 13th inst: "The march is on for Salmon River. Oro Fino and Pierce City are almost deserted—in three days—men are leaving everything behind them, and walking, or on horseback they are incessantly hurrying along—a perfect stream of men—no stay, but tramp, tramp, tramp on to the new diggings. Everybody catches the infection, and no possible amount of warning can turn aside the living current. The new El Dorado, is 100 miles south of Pierce City. Winter is already there and fourteen inches of snow is already on the trail."

[illegible] Thirty years of practice in Europe and the United States [illegible] warrants [illegible] permanent cure. Private diseases [illegible] human family. A permanent cure [illegible] the disease [illegible] the sufferer [illegible] speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in [illegible] ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a [illegible] suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

[illegible] indelible enemy to health [illegible] catalogue of human diseases [illegible] the system—drawing its [illegible] years of suffering [illegible] the nervous system [illegible] of life causes mental derangement [illegible] development of the system [illegible] society, business, and all [illegible] leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind [illegible] With the fallen [illegible] of self abuse [illegible] effected and [illegible] patients can be treated.

[illegible] of males and females [illegible] years of practice [illegible] remarkable [illegible] any part of the [illegible] by patients having [illegible] strictly confidential. [illegible] CZAPKAY'S Medical Institute, Sacramento [illegible] opposite Pacific Mail Steamship.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

[illegible] certificates of three of the patients [illegible] having received the [illegible] gratitude make known [illegible] and their statements [illegible] The depravity [illegible] publicity and [illegible] all afflicted [illegible] desirous of acquiring [illegible] fortunate enough to be similarly [illegible] their sufferings [illegible] thus publicly express [illegible] Dr L J Czapkay for the [illegible] by the [illegible] practices of [illegible] in body and mind [illegible] duty imposed upon [illegible] the advice of many [illegible] disease as of [illegible] weeks, and in several [illegible] I found, to my [illegible] my symptoms [illegible] and being told by [illegible] fixed to the brain [illegible] I despaired of ever [illegible] and as a last resort [illegible] Dr Czapkay, who [illegible] prescribed some medicine which [illegible] the dull pain and dizziness [illegible] I resolved to place [illegible] and by a strict obedience [illegible] head became clear [illegible] pain in my back and [illegible] action of my [illegible] excitement, the [illegible] distrust and want of [illegible] study and want of [illegible] at times pleasurable dreams [illegible] discharges, have all [illegible] months after having [illegible] a new life—that [illegible] contemplated to end by [illegible] the unfortunate [illegible] quacks, I deem it my duty [illegible] the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and [illegible] all who may stand in need of [illegible] experience that [illegible] are a radical and permanent cure [illegible]

DR. L J CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have [illegible] and do not think I shall [illegible] except that I have not [illegible] strength yet, but am well with the appetite [illegible] It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your Institute with my constitution, as I thought [illegible] and never thought you would be able to [illegible] but thought you might be able to do [illegible] the pain in my back and head, and strengthen [illegible] that I would not get excited and trembling [illegible] Now that you know what I expected [illegible] I am satisfied that a complete recovery from [illegible] and the removal of those sores and blotches [illegible] and the [illegible] which you said were [illegible] hardly tell you which is the [illegible] my surprise, for except not having [illegible] as well as any man can feel. [illegible] I send you twenty dollars over your charge [illegible] If you think anybody will [illegible] put this letter in the newspapers [illegible] gratefully yours

THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude

[illegible] most desire of my heart [illegible] which defeats [illegible] of scientific skill, but [illegible] About two years ago, I suddenly, and [illegible] seized with a fit of epilepsy, which [illegible] meet the expenses [illegible] and the [illegible] attempting it, soon became [illegible] to defy the skill of my [illegible] while in pursuit of my calling [illegible] at the slightest [illegible] I yet despised the [illegible] to look upon them [illegible] shelter me from danger as [illegible] of my misery [illegible] to my affliction [illegible] was reduced to [illegible] recommendation [illegible] my circumstances [illegible] his services [illegible] took my case, and [illegible] restored to perfect [illegible] which I enjoy [illegible] gratitude I consider [illegible] make the case public [illegible] may find a [illegible] be placed.
